

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Sam Sarvis

Deputy Commissioner of Capital Program Management

Sam Sarvis was appointed Deputy Commissioner of Capital Program Management in January 2013. Sam oversees the areas of Project Management and Utilities & Railroads.

Sam previously served as Deputy Commissioner of Major Program Management for the agency beginning in July 2009, focusing on the new I-69 corridor in southwest Indiana and managing the costs and delivery of this priority project. In this role, Sam was the executive in charge of all planning, development and construction of the corridor. He also directed the activities of consultants, engineers, construction, environmental and right-of-way matters, as well as serving as the primary contact with various external agencies and groups.

Sam started his tenure at INDOT in 2005 as the District Deputy Commissioner for the Vincennes District in southwest Indiana, managing more than 550 employees and $200 million in annual construction projects.

Prior to joining INDOT, Sam served as the City of Vincennes Street Commissioner and the Knox County Highway Superintendent.

Sam earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Management from Oakland City University in Oakland City, Ind.

Sam enjoys fishing, hunting and golf in his free time.

January 2016